Public Service Leadership

| Leader Profile | Excellent leadership by Public Service Chief Executives is essential for a high performing, professional and world class public sector. Underpinning chief executive leadership is the requirement to adhere to the Standards of Integrity and Conduct and the higher bar expected of chief executive behaviour. As set out in the Public Service Act 2020, chief executives are required to proactively promote stewardship of the public service, including of its long-term capability and people, institutional knowledge and information, system and processes, assets and the legislation they administer. As stewards of the system, chief executives are responsible for achieving cross-agency, sector and system results by leading, collaborating and exerting their influence in a cohesive way across boundaries and ensuring their staff have both the authority and motivation to do likewise. |

Making an application

|---------|---|
| General | Your application for this position should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A cover letter expressing interest in the position and your fit for the role in relation to the priorities: system leadership, context management, sector experience and organisational leadership;• A current curriculum vitae detailing your work history (including dates and position titles), educational qualifications, and your preferred contact details; and• A fully completed application form. |
|---------|---|

Further information has been detailed below. You should make your application via email to CErecruitment@publicservice.govt.nz

Application form Section A – Referee details

This section asks you to provide the details of referees who can help us create a 360-degree picture of your personal attributes, behaviours, and skills in relation to those detailed in the position description. These referees will be your current and previous managers, peers, junior staff members, direct reports, or others.

Please ensure you provide each referee’s name, title, relationship to you, and their preferred contact phone numbers. If they are based outside of New Zealand, please also provide an email address for that referee.

We will contact you before approaching named referees.

Application form Section B – Authorisation

In completing the authorisation section of the form, you are allowing the Public Service Commissioner (the Commissioner), or their designated representative or agent, to undertake the following checks:

- We may approach, in confidence, not only the referees you have named, but other people who have personal knowledge of you to gather information related to your suitability for this appointment.
 - Pre-employment checks, including serious misconduct checks will be undertaken, on the preferred candidate.
 - Qualifications and credit checks are completed by an external agency on behalf of Te Kawa Mataaho, only for the preferred candidate.
 - Security checks by the New Zealand Security Intelligence Service are required. These include vetting through the New Zealand Police and the Serious Fraud Office.

Application form Section C – Criminal convictions declaration

The information in this section is required to check whether you have any past criminal convictions or pending charges that might impact on your ability to be effective in the position.

If you are the preferred candidate for the position, we will confirm the details you have given through a criminal history check carried out by the Ministry of Justice. Only those directly involved in the recruitment, including our agents (and if necessary a legal advisor) will have access to this information prior to your appointment (if you are appointed, your declaration will be filed on your personal file).

The information provided in this section by unsuccessful applicants will be destroyed at the completion of the process.

If you fail to provide relevant information and the Commissioner subsequently discovers that you have a criminal conviction that could not be withheld under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 or a charge was pending at the time of appointment, you may be dismissed.

You may access this information and request its correction.

See 'Key Legislation' below for information on the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004.

Application form Section D – Conflict of interest

A conflict of interest means a conflict between a public duty and private and/or personal interests. Personal interests may be financial or relate to family, friends or associates. Conflicts of interest may be actual, potential or perceived. A conflict of interest may happen at any stage during the recruitment process. You are responsible for advising Te Kawa Mataaho immediately if you believe there is a possible conflict of interest. Please note that this will not invalidate your application but will be taken into consideration.

Te Kawa Mataaho produces model standards on the Public Service Commissioner's minimum expectations for staff and organisations in the Public Service to support the effective reporting and management of conflicts of interests. These standards should be read alongside other relevant rules and standards including the Office of the Auditor-General's Managing conflicts of interest: A guide for the public sector.

Key legislation

Public Service Act 2020 Appointments to chief executive positions in the Public Service are made under Schedule 7 clause 3 of the Public Service Act 2020. This legislation sets out procedures to be followed in making these appointments and specifies the respective responsibilities of Ministers and the Commissioner.

Privacy Act 2020 The recruitment process is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 2020. Personal information collected during this appointment process will be used solely for assessing your suitability for employment in this position. It will be held confidentially by the Commissioner, the recruitment and assessment consultants, the interview panel and to Te Kawa Mataaho staff who will assist the Commissioner with this appointment process. Evaluative information will be held in confidence and you do not have right of access to it.

Your authority is needed to gather some of this information and an authorisation section is attached for this purpose. If you are appointed to this position the information will be retained. If you are unsuccessful all of your application documents will be destroyed, unless you request that they be returned.

Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004

[Extract from Ministry of Justice pamphlet 'Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004']
You must meet all conditions in section 7 of the Act (a summary is set out below) before your convictions can be withheld. The Act should be consulted for full information (see www.legislation.govt.nz – exceptions to the Clean Slate scheme are found in section 19 of the Act).
