Update on Implementation Actions Arising from the Government Chief Information Officer's Review of Publicly Accessible Systems

Portfolio: State Services

On 29 May 2013, the Cabinet Economic Growth and Infrastructure Committee, having been authorised by Cabinet to have Power to Act [CAB Min (13) 17/4]:

- 1 noted that in March 2013, Cabinet agreed to the Government Chief Information Officer's (GCIO) recommended work programme following on from the GCIO's Review of Publicly Accessible Systems (the review) [CAB Min (13) 6/2D];
- 2 noted that on 28 March 2013, the 70 agencies within the scope of the review were each instructed by their responsible Minister to commence implementation of the work programme;
- 3 noted that implementation actions associated with the GCIO's review have progressed according to the Cabinet-mandated work programme, and fall into the following categories:
  - 3.1 actions that agencies were required to take within one month of the work programme commencing;
  - 3.2 further testing on internet-based publicly accessible systems belonging to 12 agencies;
  - 3.3 system-level actions, led by the State Services Commissioner (the Commissioner) and the GCIO;
- 4 noted that agencies within the scope of the review are currently working on four month actions, and that the Commissioner and the GCIO will report to the Minister of State Services (the Minister) and the Minister of Internal Affairs in September 2013 on the results of the four month actions;
- 5 noted the intention of the Minister to publicly release the review at the end of May 2013;

- 6 authorised the Minister to release the paper under EGI (13) 95 and associated minute at the same time as the review is released.
